It also works closely with, and on behalf of Gauteng Department of Education (GDE), to enhance curriculum delivery in schools.
- 2.2 Established in 2004, the Sci-Bono Discovery Centre is the largest science centre in South Africa and is affiliated to the Gauteng Department of Education (GDE). It is registered and functions as a non-profit organisation and offers various broad programmes of science and technology related events, activities for both the public and the school learners in Gauteng. Sci-Bono Discovery Centre is the science centre that responds to Department of Science and Technology (DST) strategies and implements the GDE projects. Sci-Bono Discovery Centre also implements projects on behalf of the South African Agency of Science and Technology (SAASTA), which is an agency of National Research Foundation (NRF).

3. SCI-BONO STRATEGIC ORIENTED GOALS

- 3.1 To provide Science Education and Technology enhanced services
- 3.2 Enhance operational efficiency and optimise agility of service delivery
- 3.3 Improve and strengthen financial viability, risk management and governance
- 3.4 Deliver relevant, research-based products and services
- 3.5 Ensure organizational sustainability

In pursuit of these goals, Sci-Bono has implemented the following key strategic interventions (amongst others):

#	Project/ Programme	Description (Note: Sci-Bono will provide programme documents, data base of beneficiaries and service providers who participated in these programmes to the successful bidder)
1	Secondary School Improvement Project (SSIP)	Sci-Bono Discovery Centre has over the years implemented and managed the SSIP program to assist the GDE to reach its main objective of producing excellent matric results since 2007. The matric results have since 2012 improved to above 80%, and such excellent results have been maintained through diligent implementation and management of the SSIP program. The programme provides supplementary tuition for Grade 8 – 12 learners in Gauteng Province’s high schools that have been prioritised as needing additional tuition. The program accommodates over 120,000 learners per year on average. Facilitated over weekends and holidays, the Grade 12 tuition sessions cover the following 10 subjects that have most contributed to the poor results in the priority schools: Mathematics, Mathematics Literacy, History, Life Sciences, Business Studies, Economics, Accounting, Physical Science, English First Additional Language and Geography. Residential and walk-in examination revision camps are facilitated for Grade 10,11 and 12’s. The SSIP programme has been seen as largely responsible for the improvements in the Gauteng Province’s Grade 12 results. Grade 10 and 11 learners receive exam preparation support in Mathematics, Accounting and Physical Science during the October holidays. Supplementary tuition programmes in Mathematics, Economic Management Sciences and Natural Sciences are provided for Grade 8 and 9 learners during the April Holidays.
2	Teacher Development Programme	The Sci-Bono Discovery Centre provides teacher training in MST and other Further Education and Training (FET) technical subjects for the GDE Teacher Development Directorate; the programme was implemented in 2009; with average yearly target of 23,286 as at 2021.

#	Project/ Programme	Description (Note: Sci-Bono will provide programme documents, data base of beneficiaries and service providers who participated in these programmes to the successful bidder)
		This training is implemented in cooperation with the Mathew Goniwe School of Governance and Leadership, the province's teacher training institute. The MST Teacher Development sub-directorate focuses on building teachers' competency in curriculum content, methodology and assessment. It also seeks to develop teachers' proficiency in Information Communication and Technology (ICT) and Practical Assessment Task (PAT) skills. The workshops that are conducted during the programme are based on the MST content to be covered each term. In the senior phase mathematics, Sci-Bono in collaboration with the GDE, introduced the Grade 8 and Grade 9 mathematics strategy that aims at improving the average learner's scores to above 60% relatively to both internal and external assessments. This is done by assisting the teachers to master mathematics content as instructed by the Annual Teaching Plan (ATP). This strategy aims to guide teachers and head of departments to adhere to notional teaching times, assessments, diagnosing and intervening and/or remediating. The scripted lesson plans were developed through this strategy and were distributed to all SSIP schools in Gauteng province. Assessments are always administered before and after workshops to identify the efficacy of the training. In some instances the practical assessment tasks (PAT) were considered as part of this assessment. The table below summarises Sci-Bono's teacher training performance during the reporting period.
3	ICT Academy	The Sci-Bono ICT Unit aims to increase access to technology, provide high quality digital education and skills development opportunities and develop solution-driven web and mobile applications to a range of clients including children, youth and the general public. The ICT Academy started in 2004, and has various target groups.

#	Project/ Programme	Description (Note: Sci-Bono will provide programme documents, data base of beneficiaries and service providers who participated in these programmes to the successful bidder)
		The End-User Computing (EUC) training consists of several programs designed to actively increase access to technology and improve its use in learning, teaching and administration. Its goal is to help teachers and learners gain better access to technology and encourage innovative approaches to teaching and learning. The Youth Development Program (YDP) is a 6-12 month programme to equip disadvantaged, unemployed youth with essential skills that will allow them to make a valuable contribution to their families, their communities and the economy as a whole. The program provides PC hardware and software technical skills and advanced networking skills, Entrepreneurship skills, life skills and career guidance.
4	Long Distance Multimedia Support Centre (LDMSC)	The economic disruptions caused by an unprecedented corona virus (Covid-19) across the globe has forced Sci-Bono to re-think the delivery model of teaching and training programmes. The spread of corona virus has led to an economic lockdown and has prompted an urgent need to carry out activities online. It is for that reason the establishment of the broadcast studio was required. The studio enables the organisation to broadcast lessons both online and on television and to do virtual learning and teacher training during these unprecedented times of corona virus and beyond. This project was completed and started to operate in 2021 calendar year. The organization provides Teacher and Learner content that is developed and broadcasted in the Long Distance Multimedia Support Centre Sci-Bono Discovery Centre aims to improve the quality of teaching and learning in Gauteng schools. The quality of teaching and learning will be improved by broadcasting interactive lessons and virtual classrooms. Broadcasting is also instrumental in the improvement of teacher performance by broadcasting interactive lessons and training

#	Project/ Programme	Description (Note: Sci-Bono will provide programme documents, data base of beneficiaries and service providers who participated in these programmes to the successful bidder)
		Broadcasting enhances the implementation of the Secondary School Improvement Program, which is key in the improvement of the National Senior Certificate (NSC) examination results. Broadcasts will also assist all the GDE support programmes to the schools
5	Fourth Industrial Revolution (4IR) Exhibition Centre	Virtual reality and augmented reality are the next mega tech themes through 2030. We liken the state of virtual and augmented reality today as similar to the state of mobile phones 15 years ago. This project was completed and started to operate in 2020 calendar year. Virtual Reality creates immersive, computer-generated environments, allowing you to be completely immersed via a headset in any alternate world. Virtual Reality is an interactive computer-generated experience taking place within a stimulated environment. It incorporates mainly auditory and visual feedback, but may also allow other types of sensory feedback like haptic. This immersive environment can be similar to the real world or it can be fantastical. There are also clear benefits of not blocking out the surrounding world and instead layering information on top of your current reality. Augmented Reality is closer to the real world as it adds graphics, sounds, haptic feedback and/or smell to the natural world as it exists. Augmented Reality is an interactive experience of a real-world environment where the objects that reside in the real-world are “augmented” by computer-generated perceptual information, sometimes across multiple sensory modalities, including visual, auditory, haptic, somatosensory, and olfactory. The VR, AR & 360 Video Laboratory is a place of inspiration and innovation. It is a technological environment with potential for creative and invaluable solutions focused towards specific industry related problems. The VR & AR Laboratory is a place where knowledge is created, built on and shared, thereby making it a space of possibilities for positive and useful technological advancements. The AR & VR Laboratory will thus also act as a catalyst for positive change in Africa and the world.
